Growing Asian Aviation Market Expands Pilot Recruiting

Paramount Aviation Resource Group expands in Asia with two new contracts

Alexandria, Virginia – September 19, 2011 – Paramount Aviation Resources Group, a global provider of flight crew personnel, is expanding into the growing Asian aviation market with two new contracts. Paramount Aviation Resources Group recently signed a recruiting contract with Skywings Asia Airlines, a Cambodia-based airline and a partnership contract with Unic Aviation, a pilot placement agency based in China.

“Paramount Aviation Resources Group is witnessing fantastic sustained growth in the Asian aviation market,” said Michael W. Johnson Paramount Aviation Resources Group President and CEO. “Paramount’s expertise in the Asian market has enabled our business to expand as the need for flight crews in the market continues to increase.”

Paramount Aviation Resources Group is currently recruiting Airbus A-320 instructors and crews for Skywings Asia Airlines. Jointly, with Unic Aviation, Paramount is recruiting Boeing B-737NG Captains for Xiamen Airlines and Airbus A-320 Captains for Beijing Capital Airlines.

“We are looking forward to working with Paramount Aviation Resources Group to procure high caliber pilots and crews for our clients,” said Ray Han, Unic Aviation Recruitment Director. “In the past five years, Paramount Aviation Resources Group has made a reputable name for itself in the Asian market and our clients are going to benefit from their recruiting expertise.”

In addition to signing contracts with Skywings Asia Airlines and Unic Aviation; Paramount Aviation Resources Group recently started crew recruiting for Korean Air, Air China and Air China Cargo. Interested pilots should contact Paramount Aviation Resources Group’s Vice President of Recruitment Services Mr. Ayman Jarrah at Ayman.Jarrah@paramountarg.com.
