Paramount Hires Two Senior Recruiters to Support Customers' Pilot Demand

Fredericksburg, Virginia – Feb. 25, 2015—Paramount Aviation Resources Group hires two senior recruiters to support customers' strong demand for qualified pilots. Paramount appoints Ms. Stephanie Tulloch and Mr. Mac Baird to lead its crew procurement division.

"Paramount's Procurement Division is experiencing an unprecedented global demand for pilots. Our customers are requesting more pilots than ever before," said Michael W. Johnson, Paramount Aviation Resources Group President and CEO. "To keep up with the demand for qualified crews, we have appointed two very experienced recruiters to help us identify the right crew members for our customers. I am very pleased to have Stephanie and Mac onboard to help us keep up with this incredible demand."

Stephanie Tulloch has a MBA and 9 years of full-cycle recruiting experience, most recently working for The Bartech Group. Mac Baird has 21 years of full-cycle recruiting and marketing experience. Prior to being hired by Paramount, Mac was a senior recruiter for Expert Search Group. Both recruiters will support Paramount customers globally.

"Paramount's customers have some of the best compensation packages in the world and I am confident our new recruiters will find many qualified pilots, who place an emphasis on safety, for those air service providers," said Mr. Johnson.

Paramount provides crew procurement services for airlines and air operators throughout the world including, Air Japan, Beijing Capital Airlines, Hainan Airlines, IndiGo, Korean Air, Lucky Air, Peach Aviation, Quikjet Cargo, Tianjin Airlines, Turkish Airlines, and VietJet Air.
