

CAMBODIA ANGKOR AIR A-321 PILOTS

PILOTS NEEDED IMMEDIATELY

Cambodia Angkor Air is celebrating 5 years of operations. It began operations in July 2009 and is the national flag carrier of the Kingdom of Cambodia. It is based in Phnom Penh and currently serves seven cities in Cambodia, China, Thailand and Vietnam including Phnom Penh, Siem Reap, and Sihanouk Ville in Cambodia, Guangzhou and Shanghai in China, Bangkok, Thailand and Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi in Vietnam. Cambodia Angkor Air currently operates a fleet of seven (7) aircraft consisting of 3 ATR-72-500 and 4 A-321 aircraft. Angkor Air will add three (3) A-321s in 2015 enabling it to continue to expand its route structure to serve more destinations including cities in India, Japan, Korea, Singapore and Thailand.

Cambodia is a country rich in culture with very friendly people and a low cost of living. Its location in central SE Asia and comfortable winter climate make it an ideal tourist destination. Cambodia offers a range of topography from forests to beautiful beaches.
