Paramount Signs Crew Procurement Agreement With JetStar Pacific Airlines

Fredericksburg, Virginia – January 25, 2018 – Paramount Aviation Resources Group, a global provider of qualified pilots and crew members, signed a multi-year contract to provide qualified A-320 Captains and First Officers to JetStar Pacific.

“Paramount is very pleased to provide our global crew procurement services to JetStar Pacific. China leads the world in demand for qualified expat pilots. SE Asia is an exciting market and Vietnam is leading the market in growth and development. Travel demand continues to increase and JetStar is growing in stride with plans to continue to increase its fleet of ten A-320 aircraft to thirty aircraft by 2020. This will require a significant number of qualified airmen to fill these vacancies,” reports Michael W. Johnson Paramount Aviation Resources Group President and CEO. “To attract crews in such a competitive global market, JetStar offers excellent terms and conditions. Additionally, JetStar provides a great avenue for career progression for First Officers through its captain upgrade program.”

The agreement between JetStar Pacific and Paramount is for multiple years. Mr. Johnson explains, “JetStar Pacific has an aggressive growth plan including the addition of both domestic and international destinations. Paramount is pleased to be such an integral component in helping JetStar reach these expansion goals.”
